SUBJECT: LUNCH & LEARN SEMINAR -- ROAD RAGE

Dr. Richard H. Driscoll, Psychologist with Westside Psychology and Employee Assistance Program, will present a Lunch & Learn Seminar on Road Rage from 12 noon to 1 p.m. on Wednesday, June 20, 2001, Room B10-12 of the Federal Building.

Habitual road rage has been defined as a persistent state of hostility behind the wheel. Nearly everyone is capable of road rage. Dr. Driscoll will discuss the symptoms and methods of dealing with aggressive drivers and the development of this behavior in our society today.

Questions about the seminar should be referred to Iris Housley, RN, COHN-S, at 576-0682.
