

- May - National Electrical Safety Month

Did You KNOW???

Electrical hazards in the workplace are more likely to result in death than injury.

Electrical accidents are responsible for over 500 deaths and $1.6 billion in property damage each year in the US.

For more information,
Please join us for an Electrical Safety Discussion

presented by:
Scott McGill

May 8, 2007
2:00 - 2:30 p.m.

Federal Bldg. "B" Conf. Rooms

All ORO Federal and Contractor employees are invited to attend.

*Drawings will be held.
You must be present to win!*

For more information go to <http://www.electrical-safety.org/>