

The Oak Ridge Chapter of Federally Employed Women's (FEW) Scholarship Program initially scheduled for Wednesday, April 18 from 4:00 – 6:00 p.m. at the American Museum of Science and Energy in Oak Ridge HAS BEEN RESCHEDULED TO JUNE 20TH FROM 4-6 P.M.

This Scholarship Program will feature Dr. William Bass, renowned U.S. Forensic Anthropologist and founder of the University of Tennessee "Body Farm". His book is on sale now at the AMSE and any book purchased at the AMSE Books-A-Million has agreed to donate a portion of the book sales to FEW.

Please contact FEW President Beverly Schultz at (865) 576-2117 or FEW Program Director Teresa Fritz-Powers at (865) 241-8308 if you have any questions regarding this program.