

Hispanic Heritage Month

September 15 - October 15, 2007

Making a Positive Impact on American Society

September 17 - Opening Breakfast hosted by HOLA
University of Tennessee. 8:00 to 10:00 a.m. (Invitation Only)

Maud W. Duquella

September 19 - Brown Bag Luncheon Presentation -
"Santos de Puerto Rico" Guest speaker Maud W. Duquella will host a presentation of centuries old wooden carved saint images representing the deep religious beliefs of the people of Puerto Rico. Presentation will explain their formation, history and current status of irreplaceable cultural timepieces of the early Puerto Rican sculptor. Presentation will be held in the 1205 Room of the Federal Building. 10-12 original Santos will be available for viewing, discussing. 12:00 to 12:40 p.m. (To register contact: Leon Duquella 576-9755 or Jorge Ferrer 576-6635)

September 19 - October 15 - Display in the Federal Building Lobby -
"Santos de Puerto Rico"

October 10 - Keynote Speaker Presentation at the American Museum of Science and Energy 10:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. - Featuring Mr. Luis A. Reyes, Executive Director for Operations, Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) - Topic: Making a Positive Impact on American Society/How the NRC became the best place to work for the U.S. Government. Puerto Rican Coffee will be served.

October 13 - HOLA Festival Latino at Market Square, Downtown Knoxville from 11:30 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Open to the Public!

Santos de Puerto Rico

September 19

- Brown Bag Luncheon Presentation -

“Santos de Puerto Rico” Guest speaker Maud W. Duquella will host a presentation of centuries old wooden carved saint images representing the deep religious beliefs of the people of Puerto Rico. Presentation will explain their formation, history and current status of irreplaceable cultural timepieces of the early Puerto Rican sculptor.

Presentation will be held in the 1205 Room of the Federal Building.

10-12 original Santos will be available for viewing, discussing. 12:00 to 12:40 p.m.

(To register contact: Leon Duquella 576-9755 or Jorge Ferrer 576-6635)

Maud W. Duquella

Hispanic Heritage Month • September 15 - October 15