

The Secretary will be hosting an all-hands meeting on Thursday, August 7, 2008, at 2:30 p.m. (EST) in the Forrestal Auditorium. The meeting will also be broadcast DOE-wide for those unable to attend in person. I will speak to the reality of our energy and national security challenges and highlight the unique ability of the DOE complex to respond to these challenges both today and moving forward.

Appropriate arrangements will be made for federal and contractor employees in the field to watch the broadcast live. Additional information regarding the broadcast is provided below.

I hope you will tune in.

For Headquarters:

The Secretary will address employees in the Forrestal Auditorium, Room GE-086. For those planning to attend in person, please arrive no later than 2:15 p. m..

The Secretary's address will also be broadcast on closed circuit televisions located in Rooms GJ-015, 7E-069, and 8E-089 of the Forrestal Building; and in the main auditorium and Room A-410 of the Germantown Facility. Simultaneously, the Secretary's address will be telecast on Channel 3 in the Forrestal Building and Channel 97 in the Germantown Facility.
