

U.S. Department of Energy - Oak Ridge Office
Human Capital Assessment Group
Training Course Bulletin

Course Name: DIVERSITY – PREJUDICE, PERCEPTION AND STEREOTYPES: HOW THEY AFFECT THE WORKPLACE

Course Number: 000404

Session Number: 0249- September 28, 2010, 9:00-11:00

0250 – September 28, 2010, 1:00-3:00

0251 – September 29, 2010, 9:00-11:00

Description: This thought-provoking and interactive session focuses on the concepts of prejudice and discrimination through lecture, video scenarios, simulated exercises and group participation. You will also learn the impact of stereotypes and how easy one can get trapped into using them. You will learn the role prejudice, perception and stereotypes plays in the workplace and in the filing of complaints. Moreover, you will have a better understanding on how to use the knowledge to better handle conflict.

This course will fulfill the requirement in DOE Order 311.1B for all DOE employees to complete EEO/Diversity training annually.

Audience: All ORO Federal Employees

Instructor: Oliver Allen, Equal Employment Opportunity Officer, Drug Enforcement Administration

Slots: 100 each session

Location: 2714G Conference Center

Date/ Time: September 28, 2010, 9:00-11:00

 September 28, 2010, 1:00-3:00

 September 29, 2010, 9:00-11:00

You are not required to complete an electronic training request form for this training. You must complete the sign-in sheet provided at the class to receive credit.

For additional information, call (865) 576-1082.

(Bulletin No. 0908-902)
