

Effectively immediately, all personnel who are performing packing activities at the Federal Building must enter the east end gate using their badge and access number.

In addition, employees can use the east end door to exit with their personal materials and boxes, and carts may be returned using the east end door. In summary, employees cannot use the main lobby, but they can use the east end door instead of the roto gate as they exit the building during normal working hours.